ORDER

BEFORE THE COURT is the trial in this matter, currently scheduled for September 13, 2021. For the reasons stated herein, the time to try this case is extended up to and including May 9, 2022.

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Chief Judge of the District Court of the Virgin Islands entered a general order concerning operations of the Court on March 17, 2020. The Chief Judge has thus far extended the order sixteen times, finding that the ends of justice require excluding March 18, 2020, through September 30, 2021, from the Speedy Trial count in all criminal matters.

To date, the COVID-19 virus has claimed more than 656,000 lives in the United States (65 of which have been in the U.S. Virgin Islands). COVID-19 continues to present an unpredictable threat to public health and safety, as shown in the recent surge in COVID-19 cases both in the continental United States and the Virgin Islands. As a multi-defendant case, this case presents significant challenges for the Court to comply with social distancing guidelines during the jury trial. Practical considerations would require additional spacing for Defendants, counsel, and jurors—and the potential for additional jurors in the courtroom. As such, the Court finds that extending the period within which Defendants may be tried under the Speedy Trial Act is necessary for the protection and well-being of the Defendants,
